

Contents

Opening Address

Mr Toshiyuki Yokota, Director, International Affairs Office, Coal and New Energy Department, ANRE, MITI, Japan..... ix

Welcome and Keynote Address

Twenty First Century Coal in the APEC Region and Republic of Korea

Mr Gam Yeol Lee, Director General, Energy and Resources Policy Office, Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Energy, Republic of Korea.....xi

Dynamism: The Status Quo for the Coal Market

Summary by the Session Chair

Dr Heon Jung, Senior Researcher, Korea Institute of Energy Research, Republic of Korea.....1

The Status Quo of Coal Purchase by the Japanese Electric Company and its Outlook

Mr Kazuo Sugiyama, Chairman, The Japanese Committee for Pacific Coal Flow, Japan.....3

Responding to Coal Market Growth in APEC Regions by the Australian Coal Industry

Mr Michael K. Pinnock, Joint Executive Director, Australian Coal Association, Australia.....15

A Perspective of Coal Fired IPP under Environmental Constraints and Deregulation of Electricity

Mr Shigeru Tamanuki, Research Fellow, Japan Electric Power Information Center, Japan.....29

The Coal Price Impact on Coal Supply and Demand

Mr Gary Cochrane, Managing Director, Barlow Jonker Pty Ltd, Australia.....43

The Long-Term Outlook for Coal Supply/Demand

Summary by the Session Chair

Mr Katsuyoshi Ando, President, Japan Coal Energy Center, Japan.....53

Impacts of GHG Constraints on the Long-Term Competitive Position of Coal in Asia

Dr Charles J. Johnson, Coordinator, Environmental Studies, East-West Center, United States.....57

The Outlook for Ultra-Long Term Supply/Demand Balance in terms of Reducing Fossil Energy Resources

Mr Kokichi Ito, General Manager, Energy Data and Modeling Center, The Institute of Energy Economics, Japan.....73

Evolving Market for Low Sulfur and Low Ash Coals in Asia

Mr Alastair B. Grant, Marketing Manager, PT ADARO, Indonesia.....99

Impact of Advanced Clean Coal Technologies on US Coal Demand

Dr C. Lowell Miller, Director, Office of Coal Fuels and Industrial Systems, US Department of Energy, United States.....111

Economies' Report on the Outlook for Coal Supply/Demand

Summary by the Session Chair

Mr Donald C. Smale, General Manager, Minerals Development Branch, Coal and Minerals Industry Division, Department of Industry Science and Resources, Australia.....125

Impacts of International Policies on APEC Coal Markets: Trade Liberalization and Climate Change

Dr Roger Stuart, Australian Bureau of Agricultural and Resource Economics, Australia (Co-author: Ms Karen Schneider and Mr Matthew Saunders).....119

Energy Mix and Coal Demand Outlook in Republic of Korea

Dr Won-Woo Lee, Research Fellow, Korea Energy Economics Institute, Republic of Korea.....129

Will P.R.China Maintain its Role as a Coal Exporter?

Mr Wei Chen, Chief Representative, China National Coal Industry Import and Export (Group) Corporation, Seoul Office, P. R. China.....137

The Canadian Coal Export Outlook in APEC Regions

Mr Donald O. Downing, Vice President, Norwest Mine Services Ltd, Canada.....141

The Prospect of Coal Supplier for Future Coal: Major Expansion of Energy Supply/Demand in Indonesia

Mr Soedjoko Tirtosoekotjo, Director, Directorate of Coal, Directorate General of Mines, Ministry of Mines and Energy, Indonesia.....149

Directions and Problems of Coal Industry Development in the Russian Federation in terms of Industry Restructuring

Dr Alexandre D. Sokolov, Head of Laboratory, Energy-Fuel Complex Development of Siberia and Far East, Energy Systems Institute, Siberian Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences, the Russian Federation (Co-author: Dr B.G. Saneev).....159

Seminar Summation

Summary by the Session Chairman

Dr Charles J. Johnson, Coodinaor, Enrивonmental Studies, East-West Center,
United States.....167

To Enhance Energy Security in East Asia

Mr Yoshihiro Sakamoto, President, The Institute of Energy Economics,
Japan.....169

Closing Remarks

Mr Keishiro Kawamo, Executive Director, New Energy and Industrial Technology
Development Organization, Japan.....173

Agenda.....174

Profiles of Speakers.....179

List of Participants.....188